STATE SUPREME COURT VERY BUSY

TWO MATTERS OF UNUSUAL IMPORTANCE TO BE ACTED ON THIS WEEK BY THE HIGHEST BODY.

By News' Special Service:
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—Two matters of unusual importance are to be acted upon by the state supreme court this week. On Thursday the special court which heard the salary cases involving increases in pay to the members of the state supreme court and the state industrial commission, will assemble and it is expected to hand down its decision. On Friday the case involving the referendum petition filed against House Bill 509, the new automobile license law, is to be submitted to the court. The opinion of the court in the case involving the referendum petition against the ratification of national prohibition, is expected with each approaching opinion day.

The seventh legislature, in session from January 6 to March 29, last, passed a bill increasing the pay to members of the supreme court and members of the state industrial commission. When this law became effective Frank Carter, state auditor, refused to issue the warrants at the new rate to members who were in office at the time the law became effective. This action was taken in conformity with an opinion from the attorney general's department, holding that the constitution prohibits a state elective or appointive officer from accepting additional fees or emoluments to those provided when he took office. Chief Justice Owens, on his own behalf and for other members of the court, instituted a proceeding in the supreme court to require Carter to issue the warrants. Judge Baxter Taylor took the same procedure in his own behalf as a member of the industrial commission. Chief Justice Owens and other members of the supreme bench disqualified themselves and Governor Robertson appointed nine special justices to hear the case. This court assembled Dec. 1 when the case was submitted.

The seventh legislature also passed House Bill 509, changing the method of taxing automobiles and other motor driven vehicles; this license tax, formerly collected on a horsepower charge basis, was, by the bill, changed to a taxation based on the manufacturer's price of the car. Automobile dealers and owners circulated a referendum petition which was objected to by Henry Wood, state highway commissioner, on the ground of insufficiency of signatures. Secretary of State Morris upheld the petition and Wood appealed to the state supreme court.

Secretary of State Morris refused to accept the filing of the referendum petition against the legislative enactment ratifying national prohibition, on the ground that it was not subject for referendum because it was merely the ratification of national legislation. The anti appealed to the state supreme court and the case was submitted several weeks ago.

DECISION IS RENDERED AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

By the Associated Press:
LONDON, Dec. 17.—The government was declared by Justice Sir John Sankey, of the Kings Bench Division, today to be without power to prohibit the importation of certain goods and that therefore its proclamation to this effect was invalid and illegal. The judgment is considered one of the most important ever rendered against the government.

FORTY THREE KILLED AND MANY INJURED IN EXPLOSION

By the Associated Press:
BERLIN, Dec. 16.—Forty-three workmen and women were killed and more than on hundred injured in an explosion at an ammunition depot near Wilhelmshaven today. The explosion occurred while shells were being unloaded.

GERMAN CLAIMS ARE BEFORE PEACE BODY

By the Associated Press:
PARIS, Dec. 17.—German claims in connection with the settlement of peace term details were again before the supreme council today. In dealing with these, the council reached an agreement to permit the Germans to collect customs duties in gold.

In a further discussion of a question of compensation for the sinking of the German ships at Scapa Flow, a discrepancy was developed between the estimates of the German experts regarding the total of mercantile tonnage and floating docks available for the purpose at German ports. It amounted to about 100,000 tons.

GAS CONSUMERS TO GET RELIEF

CORPORATION COMMISSION ORDERS CONSUMERS TO MAKE DEDUCTIONS FROM BILLS ACCOUNT LOW PRESSURE

By News' Special Service:
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—Consumers of gas, having become aware of the state corporation commission's order issued last Saturday directing gas distributors to make deductions because of low pressure service, have been inquiring as to the method under which their deductions will be made. The directions to the distributing companies is based on the "Nowata order" in which specific directions were set out for the adjustment of bills by the distributing company at that place.

The order of last Saturday, which applies to domestic consumers only, requires that during the period the gas pressure is between four and three ounces, measured at the recording pressure gauge nearest the consumer's meter, the service shall be considered to be seventy-five percent service; between three ounces and two ounces, fifty percent between two ounces and one ounce, twenty-five percent and below one ounce no service.

Distributing companies are required to make daily reports when pressure is registered below four ounces and from these reports compile a table or diagram showing the performance of the pressure gauges during each month. The Nowata order held that a consumer requires gas service for about sixteen hours out of each twenty-four, these being fixed at six o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night. Using thirty days as the monthly basis this gives 480 service hours during the month. The diagram will show the service for each of the separate sixteen hours of each day. The pressure for the total service hours of the month will be added and deductions made until the customer can be shown that there were a given number of hours in the month during which his service was imperfect. This might be, for example, forty hours during which there was no service, twenty-four hours during which there was seventy-five percent service, and forty hours when it was only twenty-five percent service. This would be considered, in the aggregate as being eighty-six hours of no service at which a charge could be made for the gas under last Saturday's order. This example would entitle the consumer to a little more than twenty percent discount on his net charge for the month.

It is understood that the Oklahoma City distributing company has volunteered to proceed on this basis without questioning the order issued last Saturday and make the discount as shown by the diagrams drawn from pressure gauge reports.

A NEW STAR IN THE BUSINESS FIRMAMENT

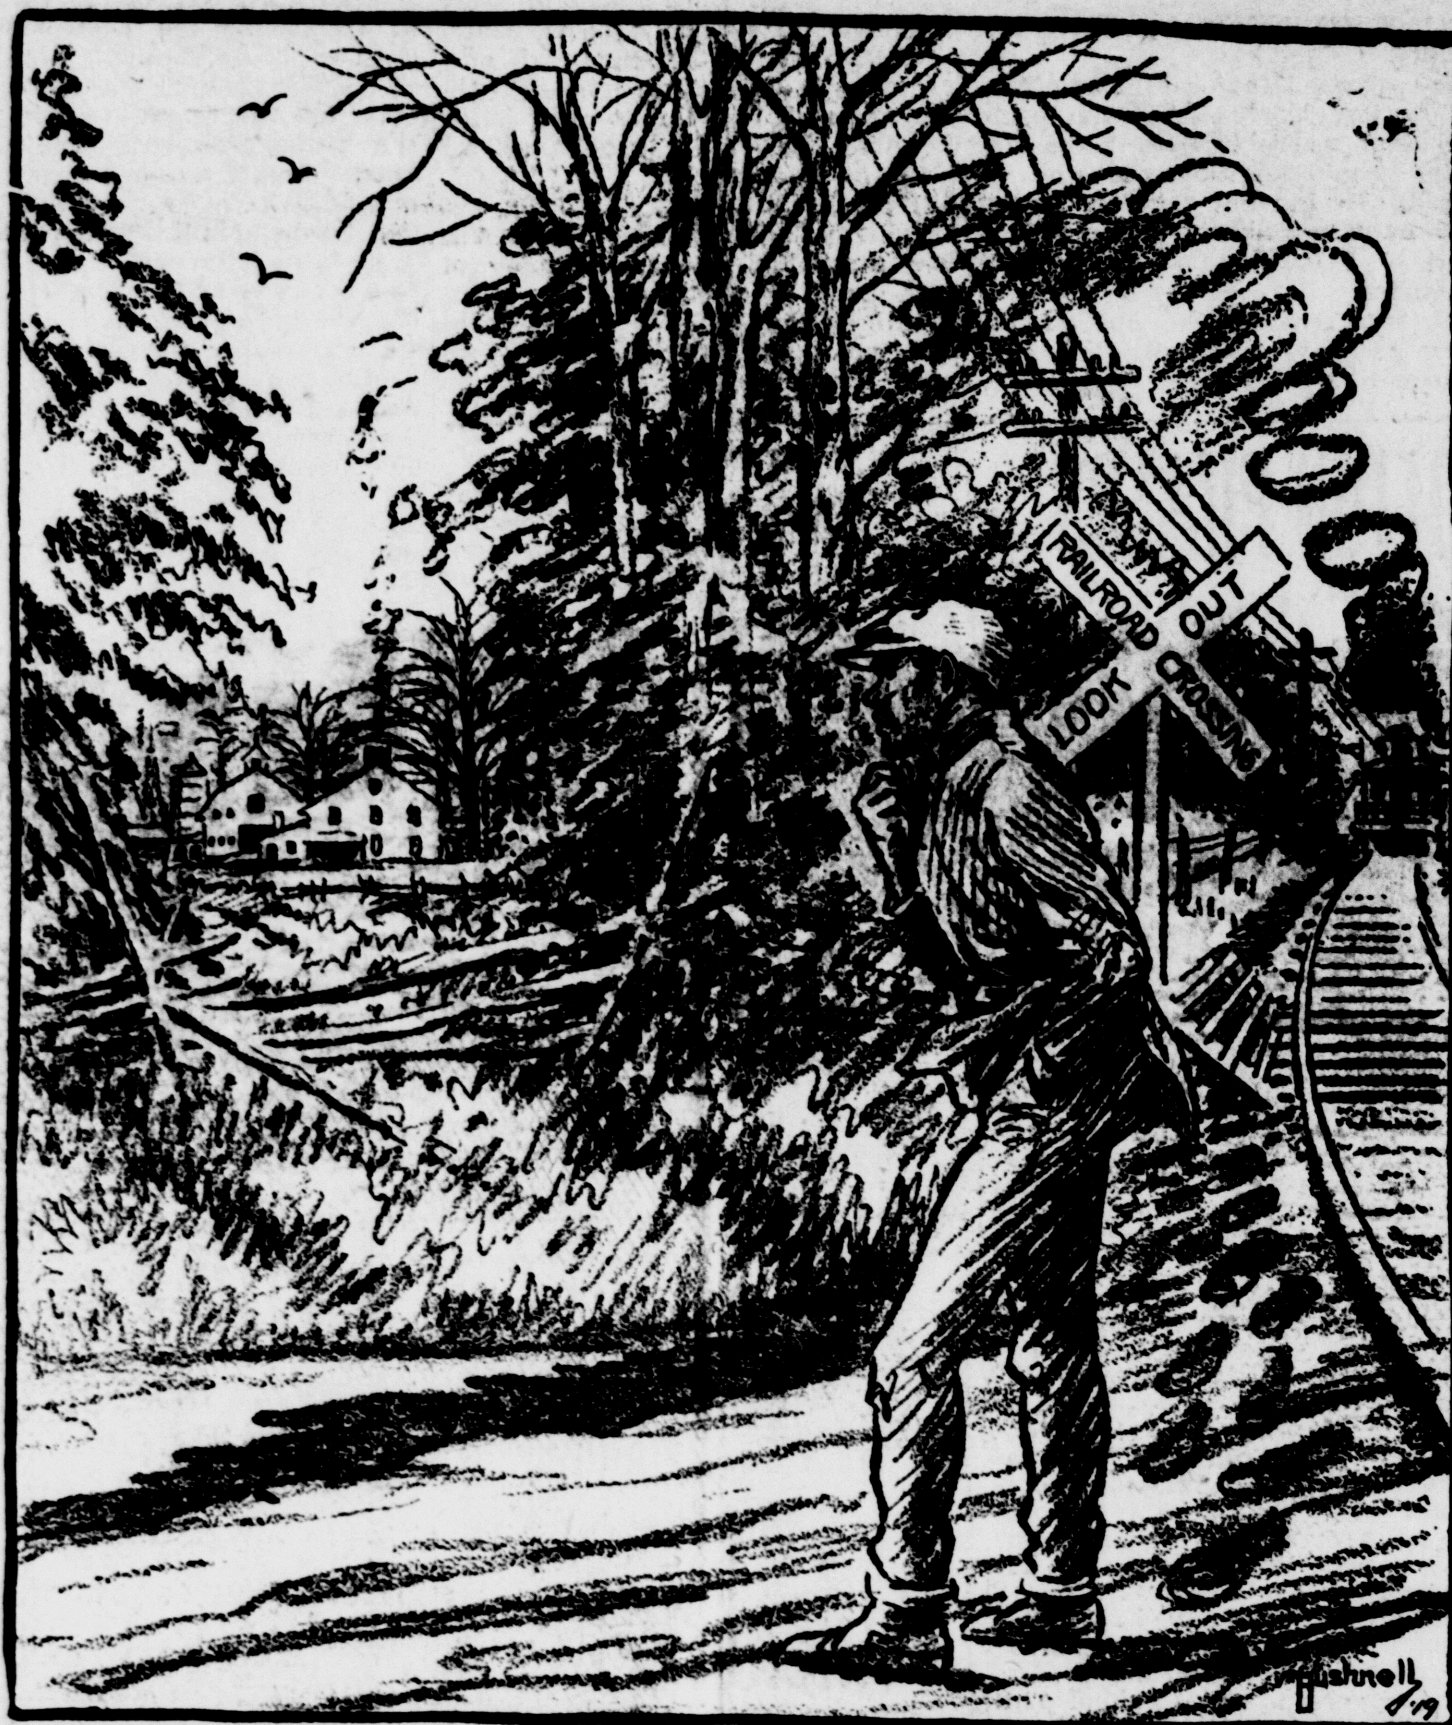

With the entrance of A. P. Brown into the mercantile field in our city, there has come to Ada a business man of rather unique and most progressive ideas of merchandising. His string of stores and his uniform success in his line of business mark him as a man far removed from the ordinary.

Mr. Brown started his career as a merchant about nine years ago, with only $400 in money, and with headquarters at Madill. By pursuing sound and progressive methods his interests have multiplied very rapidly, now having stores at Madill, Weleetka, Mill Creek, Henryetta, Bockchito and Ada. For this half-dozen houses Mr. Brown buys goods in very large quantities and pays cash for every purchase, thereby obtaining his goods at the very lowest possible price. This immense buying also places him in a most favorable position with the big wholesalers and manufacturers, who put the big buyers next to "good boys" and snappy styles the little fellow can't get hold of.

Another unusual feature of Mr. Brown's business is the publication of a monthly journal for his several stores in which he quotes prices against the mail order houses. It is claimed that this method of advertising has been a jolt to the foreign houses in the various communities where he does business. By selling strictly for cash he is enabled to give the long-distance competitors a run for their money.

Mr. Brown has come to Ada to stay. Although he will continue to make his home at Madill, he will at all times be interested in Ada and Pontotoc county and expects to do his part in keeping things moving rapidly.

CHRISTMAS AND THE PRODIGAL SON

GAS MIXUP CAUSE FOR SOME ALARM

AMERICAN OIL & REFINING CO. THREATEN TO SHUT OFF SUPPLY FROM THE MCTHWAITE COMPANY.

Yesterday morning Mayor Gary Kitchens received from the American Oil & Refining Co. of this city, copy of a letter written by the local manager, J. R. Kitchell, to the MacThwaite Oil & Gas Co., in which he notified the MacThwaite company that unless a bill of $16,277.23 is paid by the 20th of the month that the gas supply, furnished the MacThwaite company by the first mentioned, will be cut off.

The original letter was mailed to the gas company and is as follows: "Ada, Okla., Dec. 15, 1919. "MacThwaite Oil & Gas Company, "Ada, Okla. "Gentlemen: "If we do not have a check to cover the enclosed statement, amounting to $16,277.23, on or before the 20th of December, 1919, we will shut off our gas from your mains.

"Respectfully yours, "American Oil & Refining Co., "J. R. Kitchell, Manager." The mayor naturally became alarmed at the tenor of the letter from Mr. Kitchell, owing to the fact that the people would be in a desperate situation if the gas were cut off as a result of difficulties between the two companies, and immediately furnished the state corporation commission with the facts. In reply he received the following telegram from the commission: "Oklahoma City, Dec. 16, 1919. "Mayor of Ada, "Ada, Okla. "Notify gas company commission will not permit gas being cut off. Must settle their differences without inconvenience to citizens of Ada. "Corporation Commission, "R. E. Echols, Commissioner."

This intervention on the part of the commission will probably save the people any inconvenience for the present, but it will not necessarily settle the tangle between the MacThwaite people who hold the franchise on the city, and the American Oil & Refining Company, the corporation furnishing the gas supply to the MacThwaite Company. When interviewed by a News reporter this morning Mr. Kitchell did not intimate what his next step would be, but it was evident that the incident was not closed.

A. W. Parker received a letter this morning from Judge McKeown who is ill in Washington stating that he is doing fine and will be able to be taken home very soon.

ATTITUDE TOWARD MEXICO THE SAME

By the Associated Press:
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Mexico's reply to the American note renewing the request for the release of Consul Agent Jenkins had not reached the state department early today and officials declined to comment on the text as given out in Associated Press dispatches from Mexico City.

The Carranza government now agrees that the Jenkins case has taken on an entirely different aspect since the release of the consular agent on bail and expressed the hope that "this case shall no longer disturb the good relations which it sincerely hopes exists between the American and Mexican people."

After Jenkins' release on $500 bond without the consular agent's knowledge, officers here said there had been no change in the government's attitude.

TO PROBE LEVER ACT VIOLATIONS

By the Associated Press:
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 17.—The federal grand jury summoned by U. S. District Judge A. B. Anderson to investigate alleged violations of the Lever act and anti-trust laws by operators and miners and charges of conspiracy by both in connection with the strike of bituminous coal miners was empaneled this morning.

Judge Anderson, in a lengthy charge to the jury, instructed it to investigate the charges that the mine owners not only conspired against themselves to limit the production of coal, but they also conspired with the miners to the same end.

WORLD FAILS TO COME TO AN END

SUPERSTITIOUS IN MANY PARTS OF THE EARTH DISAPPOINTED WHEN PREDICTED CALAMITY FAILS.

By the Associated Press:
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Astonishment was expressed by the superstitious when the earth did not come to an end today. The ominous position of the planets has been well presented and some astrologers and persons versed in witchcraft had maintained that at the precise moment when the major leaders of the solar system formed themselves in a straight line with Neptune, Mars, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury, on one side of the sun, and Uranus on the other, the earth, which had moved four or five solar paces to the front of the line, would behave like a "one horse shay." Astronomers have predicted the end of the world on somewhat similar occasions for centuries. As early as the year 1136 the world escaped one of the threatened catastrophes. Disappointment at the escape did not prevent Stoffer from predicting a universal deluge for the year 1524, a year, as it turned out, which was distinguished for droughts. Mother Shipton, witch of the two Tudor periods, was credited with being equally sure that four hundred years after her time, in 1881, to be exact, the world would come to an end. The prediction caused much agitation in England when the date arrived. Thousands of persons deserted their homes and went out into the fields to await the end.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 17.—Prof. Albert Porta, who is generally credited with having predicted the end of the earth today, made no such flat statement, according to information received in University circles here.

Porta, who is said to be an amateur astronomer at present living just outside Los Angeles, predicted early in July according to this information, that beginning about the middle of December and continuing until the middle of January there would be a series of terrific storms, earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. The opinion is expressed in University circles that these forecasts have been strongly enlarged upon in telling that the end of the world predicted was attributed to Porta.

It is understood here that Porta a number of years ago was a professor in the University of Turin, Italy.

THOMAS WANTS A SPECIAL SESSION

J. ELMER THOMAS WRITES THE GOVERNOR CALLING ATTENTION TO THE NECESSITY OF SPECIAL SESSION

By News' Special Service:
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—Governor Robertson received a letter from State Senator J. Elmer Thomas, of Lawton, suggesting the calling of a special session of the Oklahoma legislature for the purpose of enacting legislation which would provide the state with an industrial court. The Lawton senator's suggestion, while not in the same detail, is considered to be the proposal of such a labor court as will be considered by the special session of the Kansas legislature, called by Governor Allen to assemble on January 5.

Governor Robertson offered no comment upon the suggestion of Senator Thomas other than to say that he believed that such legislation would be beneficial providing it followed the trend of Federal legislation. He pointed out that many of the matters which would likely come before a state labor or industrial court would be of an interstate nature and believed that there would be an overlapping of authority or jurisdiction unless congress first paves the way by forming a federal court of the same sort.

For several days there have been suggestions and conversations particularly in the corridors of the state house and lobbies of the downtown hotels where politicians usually get together, that there is a growing sentiment for an extraordinary session to consider many matters of statewide import. Governor Robertson has repeatedly pointed out that those who suggest or insist upon a special session of the legislature must bring their arguments to the point where they conform with his view as to the wisdom of calling the legislators together. He believes that before a session should be called that the necessity for such an assembly and the benefit to be derived from its labors must be commensurate with the expense which the session will entail.

Although he has never affirmed such a suggestion it is likely that the governor is of the opinion that there are several matters of sufficient import to go before a special session of the legislature. Even if convinced that the legislation desired would be enacted, there is still the question of whether such legislation would bring about the results that must be attained to relieve abnormal conditions.

Opinion as to the probability of a special session is perhaps worth little. Several members who have been capital visitors during the past two or three weeks appear to be of the opinion that the session will come but their conclusions, after all, are merely matters of opinion.

WANT GOVERNMENT OPERATION TESTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Protesting against the enactment of the Cummings railroad bill now before the senate, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and representatives of the Railroad Brotherhood, with spokesmen for some farmers organizations, today urged Chairman Cummings of the Interstate Commerce committee, to withdraw the measure and give government operation of the roads a thorough peace time test.

The brotherhood members announced that they planned to go to the White House during the day to urge President Wilson to use his influence against the passage of the bill.

Mr. Gompers declared that organized labor wanted the government to retain control of the railroads for two years "for the purpose of testing out the best method for their continual operation."

LANE DENIES REPORT OF RESIGNATION

By the Associated Press:
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Secretary Lane today issued a statement denying published reports that he had placed his resignation before President Wilson, disclosing, however, that he intended to leave the cabinet when he can do so without adding to the President's "burdens and worries."

BOLSHEVIK FORCES CLAIM TWO IMPORTANT CAPTURES

By the Associated Press:
LONDON, Dec. 17.—The capture of Kiev and the occupation of Kupinsk, southwest of Kharkov, are claimed in a Bolshevik statement received from Moscow by wireless today.

STATE CONTROL WILL BE BRIEF

WHITEHURST SAYS HE WILL RELINQUISH COAL RESPONSIBILITY WHEN EMERGENCY IS PAST

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—State supervision and distribution of coal will not be extended beyond to next three or four days, it was announced by J. A. Whitehurst, state fuel administrator.

"The coal now on hand will be distributed to the points where it is needed most, principally on the west side of the state, and when we have eased over the emergency we will relinquish this duty," said Whitehurst.

Normal production, Whitehurst said, would be resumed within the next few days. Departure of the Federal troops from the coal mines may begin Saturday at which time Governor Robertson will lift his martial law proclamation.

A conference will probably be held between the governor and some of the larger wholesale dealers to discuss the matter of commandeering the output of the mines.

"We are both working to the same end," said Dorset Carter, president of the Oklahoma Coal operators, "and the matter can be adjusted without any difficulty. The governor is fair and I am sure that a satisfactory adjustment can be made."

Mine workers returned to their work yesterday and the mines are being operated without trouble, he said. Thirty-eight per cent of the miners and 29 per cent of the day men returned yesterday and the rest will resume work as soon as they arrive in the fields.

With a constant call for coal from people in all stations of life in Oklahoma City, no coal is available for distribution, according to managers of leading coal yards. Up to last night no coal had been received and no relief was in sight before tomorrow.

REPORT OF MASSACRE BY PERSIANS DENIED

By the Associated Press:
LONDON, Dec. 17.—Official denial of the report circulated by the Russian Bolsheviks that hostile Persians had massacred the British garrison of 1300 men at Meshed, Persia, was made by the war office today. The announcement stated that this report "had been repeated to the war office without comment by the commanding officer at Meshed three days after the alleged destruction of himself and his command."

RHODE ISLAND WANTS TO KEEP J. BARLEYCORN

By the Associated Press:
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The state of Rhode Island, through its attorney general Herbert A. Rice, asked the supreme court today for permission to institute original proceedings to test the validity of the national prohibition amendment and to enjoin federal officials from enforcing it in that state.

Rising Temperature Enables Machinery At Capital to Move

By News' Special Service:
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—With moderation of the temperature at the capital city Monday conditions at the statehouse began to resume a more normal aspect. All departments were in operation as usual, though on two days of last week two departments practically were obliged to close up. Workmen resumed work on the capitol grounds and grading is being prosecuted at a rate that forecasts an early completion of the work of beautifying the capitol district.

ALL MILLIONAIRE APARTMENT HOUSE

By the Associated Press:
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—An all-millionaire apartment house 16 stories high, to cost $4,000,000 will be built shortly in the exclusive Central Park West Section of the city. It became known today when a lease on the property for 21 years at an aggregate rental of more than two million dollars was obtained by a syndicate of bankers.

Apartments in the proposed building will range from 29 rooms and ten baths to 17 rooms and seven baths. A staff of trained servants will be maintained and a restaurant will be operated that will take up the greater part of the ground floor.

My Trip to The Dallas State Fair

By Gussie Stephens

But why a free trip? Because Hazel-Atlas Glass Co., Wheeling West Va., big business folks that they are, alert to push worth while things, saw fit to offer a number of free trips to the Oklahoma girls who came out ahead in club work.

Only in a small way can we ever express our appreciation for the interest and money that some folks have put into club work. It was a great trip, brimming over with the educational, recreational and all good things. It gave us a glimpse into a wonderful world we had desired to explore because we know that these great fairs and exhibitions are made possible because back on our farms, a great population, of which we are a part, tills the soil.

The news that I was a winner came only a few hours before the time to start. Father consented, provided the school would let me off. The school management said, "Yes, go", and in a little while I had my grips packed and was on my way to Oklahoma City to be taken charge of by Mrs. Frazier and Miss Diehl, Dist. Home Demonstration Agents. The other prize winners were to assemble there and we had scarcely brushed up a little after getting off the train when a representative of The Times, one of our biggest daily papers, came around and made our pictures. We looked as well as possible and secretly hoped the pictures would be on the front cover of the next issue and a copy would be sent back to all our friends.

About midnight we left over the Santa Fe for Ft. Worth, took a pullman, "snugged" up for the night, very sorry that it was to be sleep instead of looking out and seeing everything enroute.

We breakfasted in Ft. Worth, caught an inter-urban car for the Dallas State Fair grounds and thence to the Girls' Encampment building—there to be greeted by about 250 Texas club girls—all of whom were prize winners.

We found that everything had been well planned for our pleasure and profit and we all began to get acquainted with each other and our surroundings. It's hard to say what the biggest thing of an encampment school is but as I scanned this splendid army of club girls, the thing that impressed me most was the realization that upon shoulders such as ours will rest the responsibility of the homes of tomorrow and to the extent that we forge ahead as leaders the greater will become our opportunities. Doubtless many of us saw in this bringing together from widely separated homes, this close personal contact, these gathering of ideas, a something that will make us stronger to cope with future problems.

A good dinner, registration, then to the magnificent Coliseum building where we heard the famous American Syncopated Orchestra—saw a wonderful statue display and were entertained by a good show. A continuous round of seeing and learning and then back to Barrack No. 1 Encampment building for a good night's sleep.

Reveille was sounded about 7:00 each morning when we arose, dressed, breakfasted and tidied up our quarters for inspection. Not a dull moment in all our stay at Dallas. We rode the caterpillar, the scenic railway, over-the-waves, took in shows and various forms of amusements, all new and wonderful to us. But far better than all these we saw the great Agricultural exhibit of a great agricultural state.

We never grew tired of looking at the county collective exhibits. Here Ellis county won first place. Its products were fine and old King Cotton was beautifully and handsomely designed and he really did look as if Ellis county leads the world in the production of cotton.

Cook county came second and we were told that in 1910-12 '13 '16 and '17, it had won first.

We shall never forget how well all the counties showed up and we just must mention that Oldham county displayed 21 varieties of sorghum and had won 22 blue ribbons on apples. Then lo! and behold there too was McCurtain and Texas counties from our own dear Oklahoma. Both were good-looking and not an inch behind those of our sister state. Down our backs we wore big Oklahoma pennants and it seemed that these two counties recognized us and wanted to say "Howdy-do" to us.

We lingered long in the Art building. We left with a new vision, a new longing, hoping that the memory of things so lovely would remain with us.

And what can we say that would be in keeping with the splendid display of canned goods. We that have belonged to the Canning Club and canned year in and year out, knew how to appreciate it, and we feel that Oklahoma and Texas could get together a canning club exhibit that would command the admiration of the world.

Then the poultry exhibit was so good and the rabbit show so fine that we could hardly leave them, but none of us knew that such live stock existed. Cattle, horses, hogs—looks like Texas would be drunk with pride. Hogs too large to describe, in fact, the whole thing beggars description, unless you have seen it you could not understand. More and more we would hasten the time when the Jersey, the Holstein and such can be found down on the farm as well as at the Dallas State Fair.

We shuddered thru the Government building with its big display of death dealing devices of the world war but the big automobile building with its 125 makes of cars brought us back to normal feelings and we would like to hurry the cars forward as well as the cows. My! my! the farm machinery in another building, surely Texas went a-borrowing in this line. I never saw the like! Does look like some of those old rickety, broken plows down on the farms could be thrown away since better one are so plentiful. Occasionally a girl would stop the whole line of march to get a stick pin handed out by the John Deere people or maybe it would be a hand bag by the Avery folks. Then there was the Ames buggy folks with combs—and by no means least were the Karo folks with their cakes and sweets. It would not have been like a fair if we had not been allowed to catch up such things as we passed.

Well, we saw the Alamo and brushed up on our history a little not to forget that part again.

I must mention our seeing the wonderful fire works, then I want Oklahoma to know that we sang the A. & M. college song down in Texas and before our departure Col. John N. Simpson, Pres. Dallas State Fair Association, delivered an inspiring address. He said, "Women are the home makers—without her there is no home."

They told us that the club work reaches 3-4 of the rural population of Texas and we join them in hoping that it will soon reach all of Texas and Oklahoma.

Thanks, to the Encampment School management, thanks to Hazel-Atlas Glass Co., may the liberality you have shown be as bread cast upon the waters.

Do You Know?

Do you know the young fellow who works for $25 a week and who is wearing a new winter suit that cost $85?

Do you know the wage earner who loafs because he is afraid if he does too much he'll "work himself out of a job?"

Do you know the housewife who is ashamed to be seen with a market basket on her arm or to carry home a brown paper bundle?

Do you know the manufacturer who, when the price of raw materials and over head goes up 5 per cent and the cost of labor advances an equal amount, adds twenty-five percent to the price of his goods?

Do you know the factory girl working for $18 a week who is buying and wearing a $350 fur coat?

Do you know the man who lets a fresh clerk sneer him into buying a $15 hat for fear he'll seem "cheap" when he can buy a satisfactory one for $7?

Do you know the investor who has traded his Liberty Bonds for a promise of a hundred per cent profit in a stock company backed by a dishonest promoter?

Do you know the married couple who do not think enough of their children to buy War Savings Stamps for them and to teach them to save?

Do you know the shopper who says "wrap it up" instead of "How Much?"

Do you know the person who lets the desire of the moment destroy the results of days and weeks of thrift and saving?

Do you know the man who thinks it is not necessary to save?

Do you know the man who says that the government savings securities, Liberty Bonds, War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates are too slow or too small or too old-fashioned for his investments?

If you do, you know pretty well what is the matter with the United States.

Story of the Cable Car.

In 1873, on August 1, the first cable car in the world was put into operation at San Francisco. The inventor of the cable system was Andrew Hallidie. The cable cars were introduced into Chicago eight years after their appearance on the Pacific coast and in 1883 were adopted in New York, Washington and Philadelphia and afterward in London.

Don't Suffer

MANY men and women are suffering because they are treating effects instead of removing causes.

Why bother with liniments and lotions for rheumatic pains, backache, stiff joints, sore muscles, biliousness, nervousness, floating specks in the vision, dizziness, puffy pouches under the eyes, or other symptoms of kidney trouble when the kidneys can be made well and strong, thus removing the cause of the symptoms?

Foley Kidney Pills

have been used for kidney trouble and bladder ailments by men and women with success for many years. They seem to get right at the root of the trouble, invigorating and strengthening, healing and soothing weak, sore, or disordered kidneys and bladder. They help the kidneys throw out of the blood the waste and poisons that cause the symptoms of kidney trouble.

O. W. Weisinger, 2824 Buena Vista, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "I have suffered more or less with kidney and bladder trouble for the past ten years. The only thing I have ever been able to get relief from was Foley Kidney Pills. I earnestly recommend them to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."

YANKEE PRISONER CHARMED BY VILLA

EAGLE PASS, Texas, Dec. 17.—Fred G. Hugo of El Paso, Texas, manager of the J. N. Dobie ranch near Muzquiz, Mexican state of Coahuila, declared yesterday that he "suffered no hardships and had no reason to complain" in connection with his detention by the Villista force that raided Muzquiz a week ago. Hugo reached here late last night.

His release, Hugo said, was effected on the promise that he would not state where he was taken nor under what conditions he was released. He did not deny the report that he was released without payment of $10,000 ransom originally demanded.

"I was treated like one of the party and became really favorably impressed with Pancho Villa, who was in personal command of the force," Hugo said. "Villa conducted his operations in an orderly and systematic manner and his men are under strict discipline."

Hugo, who told of several conversations with the revolutionary chief, declared Villa "was in perfect physical condition" and still wore a mustache, but he had no beard.

Establishment of a new civil government in Mexico, and not a military one, is the ambition of Villa, he told Hugo, in explaining his ideas of government.

Hugo ate his meals with Villa, the ranchman said, and the men in Villa's force had the same grade of food as their commander.

"He invited me to come down and have Christmas dinner with him," Hugo added.

OKLAHOMA FAVORED IN CARS FOR WHEAT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—While Oklahoma wheat growers have been seriously handicapped by the shortage of cars in which to ship their crops, and much actual loss has been reported, Oklahoma fared much better than either Texas or Kansas in its crop movement, according to Max Thelan, of the United States railway administration.

Eighty per cent of the wheat crop in Oklahoma had been moved by October 31, while only 60 per cent of the Kansas crop had been shipped from the farms and 74 per cent of the Texas crop had gone to markets. Total Oklahoma production was 36,231,000 bushels, with 9,019,000 bushels still on the farms of the state. During the period between July 1 and November 14, 38,027,000 bushels of wheat in Oklahoma was moved from the farms according to figures of the United States grain corporation, leaving on the farms, (less seed) only 7,223,000 bushels. County elevators of the state had on hand but 2,948 bushels of this wheat, while mill elevators contained 4,918,000 bushels.

WRITER COMPARES GERMAN GENERAL TO XERXES OF OLD

By the Associated Press

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—Theodore Wolff, writing in the Tageblatt, compares General Ludendorff, formerly chief of the German general staff, with Xerxes, "who, after the destruction of his fleet ordered the sea to be whipped."

"It does not indicate much strength of soul," he continues, "when Ludendorff repeatedly seeks to make the people responsible for the revolution, which was occasioned only by military failures. He is considerably more unjust than Xerxes."

"The Americans whom he had ridiculed, came, and the tanks that he had made fun of arrived also. On June 6 the announcement was made to the German people that the 'proud manœuvre army or the Entente as such exists no longer,' and five days later came the 'dissolution and complete destruction of the Poch manœuvre army.'"

"Yet all of a sudden, as four years before, the German army ventured too far, the manœuvre army was there. The German troops had to give, and in the deception which followed so many lying claims, in the bitterness at the murderous mistakes, and in the recognition that with the ridiculed entry of America Germany's fate was sealed, a four year old courage collapsed."

"ONLY ONE THING BREAKS MY COLD!"

"That's Dr. King's New Discovery for fifty years a cold-breaker!"

NOTHING but sustained quality and unflinching effectiveness can grow such enthusiasm. Nothing but sure relief from old colds and sneezing and coughing, throat-irritation, and croup could have made Dr. King's New Discovery the nationally popular and standard remedy for colds, croup, whooping cough, and all other ailments. Good for the whole family. A bottle in the medicine cabinet means a short-lived cold or cough. 60c. and $1.20. All druggists.

YE TOWN GOSSIP

WOMEN ARE funny things.

AND HARD to understand.

AND EVERY NOW and then.

SOME MAN.

GETS THE idea.

THAT HE knows.

ALL ABOUT them.

ONLY TO find out.

THAT AFTER all.

HE IS in complete ignorance.

ABOUT THE sex.

AND IT'S strange.

THAT ON these cold nights.

A WOMAN never thinks.

TO ASK you.

WHETHER THE back door.

HAS BEEN locked.

UNTIL YOU'RE in bed.

AND TUCKED in.

AND JUST getting.

NICE AND comfortable.

AND YOU'VE got to get up.

IN THE cold.

AND TROT downstairs.

AND FIND out.

THAT THE door's locked.

AND THE same way.

IT CERTAINLY is curious.

THAT WOMEN.

NEVER KNOW.

THAT THEY are thirsty.

AND WANT a drink of water.

UNTIL THEY'RE in bed.

AND UNTIL you are too.

AND YOU have to go.

THROUGH THE same performance.

ALL OVER again.

AND I believe.

THAT WE men.

OUGHT TO have some system.

OF SOME kind.

AND SIGN a pledge.

OR SOMETHING.

PLEDGING OURSELVES.

NOT TO get UP.

OUT OF bed.

AT ANY time.

AFTER WE have once.

CRAWLED UNDER the covers.

BECAUSE IN these times.

OF CONSERVATION.

A MAN ought to conserve.

ALL THE cuss words.

THAT HE can.

BECAUSE HE'LL need them all.

I THANK you.

For the Motorist

Motorists fail to be discouraged by the coming of winter; on the contrary, they lay plans that will give Jack Frost a merry chase if he undertakes to follow them. Any number of industrious and home-loving, average people acquire a car and become "gasoline tramps" in the winter time. Spring, summer and fall they labor and do all that they have to do, but comes the winter and they answer the call of the sun and the summer, spinning along the main lines of travel from north to south and east to west. Nothing daunts those who have become accustomed to touring about the country in their cars, with equipment to make themselves comfortable, and even the stay-at-homes don't store the automobile in the winter as they did a few years back. All the year round it is going and coming in this country of restless and enlightened motorists.

The lady tramp, who is about to see some of our great and glorious country from a touring car, insists upon being comfortable above all things. Also she aspires to looking as "slightly" as the circumstances permit and the circumstances—in the form of coats and hats—are most accommodating.

Two motor coats and a motor hat are shown in the picture and they are convincingly good looking. The long coat of natural muskrat skins at the left has a collar and cuffs of Hudson seal and is a handsome and cozy garment that insures one against ordinary cold. The body of it is made of the whole skins set together. It is bordered at the bottom with four bands cut from the pelts, with the dark stripe running horizontally. For town or country this is a fine driving coat and the tourist will find it a joy for warmth. The belt is supported by slides and fastens over a big seal-covered button at the front.

The cloth coat at the right might be selected in any of the heavy, soft coatings—as cut Bolivia, silverstone or duvetyn. It is lined with a soft, figured silk and has a narrow belt that extends in two ends across the front only, allowing the back to hang free. The ends of the belt fasten at the sides with buttons. Selected racoon skins make the ample collar and cuffs.

The hat at the top of the picture is made of duvetyn over silk. It covers the head very completely and has a visor that shields the eyes. But the crown is extended and turned up in a coronet that gives a bonnetlike effect and adds much to the dignity of this very clever and original headpiece. Cut-out figures in the crown reveal a silk lining in a contrasting color.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

by Mary Graham Donner

A CHRISTMAS CHAT.

"This is the time of year," said Daddy, "when I do not feel like telling fairy stories of any kind or description except stories of Christmas time."

"And they're the stories we like to hear," said Nick.

"Yes," said Nancy, "we don't want fairy tales or anything else, no matter how nice it is in the way of a story, just when we're so excited over real things like Christmas."

"I'm glad we feel the same way about it and that is why I've been telling Christmas stories for the past week and more and will go on doing so for another week or so if you still want to hear them."

"We do," said Nick.

"We do," agreed Nancy.

"I'm going to tell you today, or rather, this evening, of the excitement in the city. There were so many people out, in fact it seemed as though everyone had come out, and some of the dogs whose masters and mistresses hadn't wanted to leave them alone all the time these days had brought them out, too."

"The dogs stuck close to their masters and mistresses and looked about them as though to say: 'Dear, dear, such crowds! Why a poor dog doesn't know which way to turn.'"

"One dog was riding in a motor and looking out of the window at one side and then at another in his excitement. There was so much to see."

"A pussy cat wandered in and out between the feet of some people trying to find her home, and she evidently found it before I left her, for I saw her bounding along with a happy, gleeful look on her face as though to say: 'Well, it's enough of a crowd for any cat to lose its way in, but a cat is pretty smart—just see me!'"

"In the big shop windows dolls were gayly riding elephants and they didn't look in the least afraid, and they were riding lions and didn't seem to have any fear!"

"Of course the lions and the elephants and the other animals were not real, but still they did look rather dangerous, rather wild—with their faces of plush and cloth and all sorts of materials."

"There were riding horses and there were toy automobiles and automobile trucks and automobile ambulances, and everything else you can think of."

"And I saw the most adorable of small dogs wearing a little coat which also covered his tiny legs down to his feet."

"This little dog, by the way, was a real one. I begin to tell you of the real dogs and then of the toy dogs."

"In and Out."

in the shop windows, and I'm sure it is hard for you to know whether I am talking about real ones or about make-believe ones.

"But I get so interested, too, when Christmas time is the season of the year that it is all I can do to tell a story."

"I saw many wagons filled with trees which were going to be used for decorations and there were trees with many colored lights standing in parks where there would be Christmas singing."

"Oh, everything was gay and happy and merry and everyone was thinking about presents and giving and all such nice things. And the grown-ups were thinking how happy the children were going to be—just as I am happy this very moment—for we all know, all grown-ups, that Santa Claus is thinking and scheming and working and planning for the great trip he is soon to make."

"And because we know our children have such a friend, such a real friend, we're all so happy. Oh, Nick and Nancy, and all children who know Nick and Nancy, can't we just say we're happy because it's Christmas time and we know everyone else is, too, and it doesn't matter about a fairy tale when a real and dear and adorable person who loves the children is really coming so soon."

"Oh, Daddy, you're wonderful to be so excited, too, about it," said Nick.

"And, Daddy, let's write some letters to Santa Claus this very evening. Let's wish him, too, a merry Christmas," said Nancy.

"A fine idea," said Nick, "and, Daddy, may we wish all the other boys and girls who know us a merry Christmas, too?"

"Indeed you may," said Daddy.

HOW ABOUT AMERICA?
FOR AMERICANS?

The time has just about come when this question must be considered, with all the gravity it merits, when the needs of a free country must be considered in the true light of their importance, and international sentimentality laid aside for the moment, that cooler, calmer judgment may prevail. Today America is facing a crisis—as to whether the balance of power shall swing to the men and women who have made America, who love America and who would be willing to die for the ideals for which Americanism stands, or to wild-eyed radicals and Reds and Bolsheviks who came to this country cringing and begging for the shelter of its wide, strong arms, only that they might later sink their poisoned fangs into the veins which carries its blood of life.

It is a strange America that we live in today, an America which sent millions of its young men across the ocean to fight for freedom, and gain it, only to find a dagger struck at its back for the principles it upheld. In the surge of the daily news, we find an organization voting for the soviet form of government in Chicago, we find a labor organizer shouting he is an I. W. W., a Red, a Radical and a Bolshevik, and defying anyone to do something about it. We find troops raiding anarchist dens in the steel districts and confiscating masses of destructive, inflammable literature, we find American after American coal miner voting against a strike that would cause untold suffering to the greatest nation in the world, yet forced to bow meekly to an order which the president himself characterized Saturday as "a grave moral and legal wrong against the government and the people of the United States."

What can be the cause of this condition? Can it be the foment of war? Hardly. Never was there a people more united than during the struggle with Germany. Can it be that economical conditions in the United States are so rotten that men must turn to anarchy and destructive methods to obtain a livelihood? The answer is plainly that there is more money in circulation today, more jobs looking for men, more industries offering wages before unheard of, than at any time in the history of the nation. The answer does not lie there.

It lies in the fact that practically every man who is fomenting trouble in the United States today, every man who is fighting against the principles upon which this country was founded and by which it must live, is not an American at heart

He is the man you find on the street corners, talking from a soap box, or arguing in broken English in front of the newspaper bulletins. Examine his history carefully and you will find that he came to this country a cringing, craven, begging thing, his dirty hands extended in pleading, his hypocritical lips pouring forth effusions at the sight of the Statue of Liberty. He had left his own country, either because he could not make a living there or because conditions were so unbearable as to drive him forth, a fugitive to a land where men have an equal chance and where justice is paramount. And so he came here, he made money, and sent it back home, to the country he was alleged to have despised. He became a fixture in this country, learned enough of the language to carry him along and then—

With this new language of the land that had given him life, did he speak praise of the country that had fed him, clothed him, fostered him and protected him. He did not. He began to spew a venom of the old world, to disseminate the teachings of anarchy.

He found fault with the administration of a nation that at one time he had called the salvation of the world. The institutions of this nation became, on his poisoned lips, things of injustice, instruments of oppression. Strange indeed that those same institutions were not oppressive when he came here, when he hung out of a steerage porthole and wept at the sight of the Statue of Liberty!

Ingrates and venomous traitors—it is the only name which can be applied to these men who are seeking to sow the seeds of Bolshevism throughout America, the land that fed them. With hardly a knowledge of the language we speak, they presume to tell us that the foundations upon which this nation was builded, and which existed happily for a hundred years before their coming, is wrong, and that only their methods of death and destruction can make it right. They cannot talk our language, but they aspire to make our laws.

Today, throughout America there are men who do not even know the theory of lawmaking by representation, who presume to tell us that our government is wrong, our principles wrong, our entire mode of life wrong. That this government offered them shelter, that those principles gave them freedom and that mode of life a means of living far better than they ever had known before, seems not to count in their estimation. They, the minority, are right. We, the majority, are wrong. Let there be bloodshed and animosity and destruction—their cry is for nothing else. Being beasts at heart, who fight in the street, they cannot appreciate the feelings of humans who love and understand peace.

This is no place for Bolshevism, for anarchy, for soviets or Russian radicalism. This is America, and the man who cannot believe in the precepts of this country should be sent back whence he came. America must exist for Americans and American ideals, not for disorganizers, radicals, bomb plotters, anarchists and disruptionists. They came here under false pretenses and have been found out. Now let them be sent back where their venom can no longer poison the hand that fed them.

DEMobilization OF SERVICE FLAG

A special service will be held at the Christian Church next Sunday evening at the regular church hour—seven o'clock. Throughout the country service flags are being removed, their place in the great war being completed. A special program is being prepared for this service at the Christian Church. It is expected that it will be largely attended. Not only the boys who will be honored at that time are invited, but also their relatives and friends. The program will be published in the paper later in the week. The program will consist of Scripture reading, music, readings and addresses. All have a most cordial invitation to this service.—C. V. Dunn, Minister.

Two Women Will Sit
On the Jury in the Case of Harry New

By the Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Dec. 17.—Expressions here today were that practically all of the second day of the murder trial of Harry S. New, alleged son of United States Senator Henry S. New, would be consumed in completing the jury. Eleven jurymen, including two women, who stated they believed in capital punishment in some cases, were in the box when the case was resumed. The prosecution announced that it would endeavor to prove that New was sufficiently sound mentally to be responsible for the murder of Miss Lesser July 4, last.

Carry the Tidings

Sound the alarm to a long suffering public.

Carry the news to every flyover owner in the city and all the country 'round about.

The shell holes in the Argonne Forest—better known as Main Street Ada, Okla.—are being patched.

The work is actually in progress and at least a half dozen of the deepest graves have been filled as we go to press.

After all the job looks real easy and it is not believed now that a single man engaged in the undertaking will either lose his life or suffer any injury.

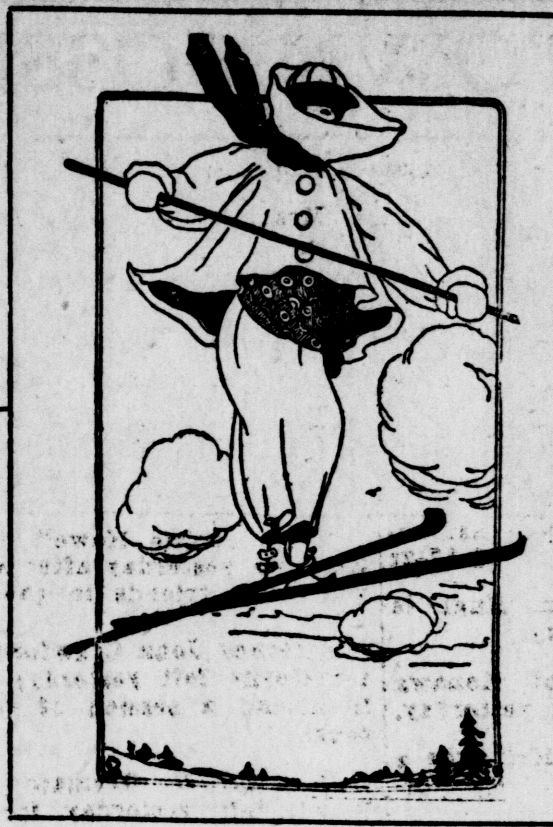

Let us breathe more easy—it is barely possible that the reconstruction period is on, now that the world didn't come to an end as has been predicted.

Castleberry-Weathered.
Mr. Claude H. Castleberry of Knoawa, and Miss Harvie Weathered, of Fort Worth, were married at the First Baptist Church at eleven o'clock this morning. Rev. C. C. Morris officiating. The couple left immediately for Knoawa, the home of the groom, who is a prosperous young farmer.

To My Friends.

I wish to state to my friends that I failed to secure the building on Main street in which I expected to open my confectionery business. I will attempt, however, to secure another place and open up at a later date.

Slim Lines and Gorgeous Fabrics

Dinner and evening gowns, perhaps as the result of a reaction after the restraint of war times, have swung to the other extreme and are as elaborate as ingenuity can make them, and rich beyond anything that has gone before for many a year. Cloth of gold and silver, satins with gold or silver figures scattered over their surfaces, brocades, rich embroideries studded with jewels, laces and nets that are a mass of twinkling sequins, fringes of all kinds, and always more gold and silver cloth, entice those who are looking for real things to choose from. Metallic threads are woven in with silk in all the lovely evening shades so that rose and silver, turquoise and gold, blue and silver make wonderful shimmering cloths. Wherever fashionables foregather there will be much glittering this winter.

And these rich fabrics are not monopolized by the full-fledged women of society. The younger set is allowed them as the foundation for frocks, usually veiled with tulle. Artificial flowers deck out pretty dance frocks and sparkling bands of sequins in all colors are used on tulle to match in color. For older women ostrich plumes enrich gowns where one might look for flowers, and are used in the evening coiffure and in the most splendid of fans.

A lovely example of a sequin-covered gown for evening appears at the right of the two pictured above. It is a combination of white and black, in which these glittering fabrics are at their best. This gown has long and almost straight lines and the skirt shows the disposition to grow shorter which is making itself felt. It is shortened at the front. A tuft of ostrich feathers at the left side in black and a big fan of black ostrich find themselves in a perfect setting. A wonderful Spanish comb makes a simple coiffure, impressive and in keeping with the gown.

But not everyone cares for so much glitter even for evening wear. At the left is a less pretentious gown that is dignified and beautiful. Black satin, georgette crepe and beaded bands of jet are put together in a composition that can hardly be improved upon—its lines are classic. Three-quarter length sleeves and a draped skirt (that is unusually long) take cognizance of the mode.

WOMAN ALMOST GAVE UP HOPE

MRS. BULEY HAD SUFFERED TWENTY YEARS—TAKES TANLAC AND IS NOW WELL.

"When my friends ask me what caused my wonderful improvement, I just say 'Tanlac,'" said Mrs. Burl Buley of 521 Baxter Court, Canton, Ill., recently.

"For the past twenty years," she continued, "I suffered from acute indigestion. I had terrible cramping spells and gas would form so badly that I could hardly breathe. I was so weak and run down that I couldn't attend to my housework. My head would ache like it would burst. I was so nervous that the least little thing would upset me, and I could hardly sleep. Nothing I took did me any good and I gave up all hope of ever being well again."

"So many people were being benefited by taking Tanlac that my husband got me a bottle to try, and I began to improve at once. Soon I could eat anything I wanted without having any trouble afterwards and now my twenty years of suffering are completely at an end. Those awful headaches are gone. I haven't a sign of indigestion. I sleep like a baby and feel perfectly well in every way."

The Hour-Glass.

Instead of being obsolete the hour-glass in various forms is a present-day necessity. An authority points out that for such purposes as trimming, hardening and tempering heats in twist drill manufacture, where seconds or minutes must be gauged accurately, nothing serves like the hour-glass with the right amount of sand.

On Discarding the Old.

The great discard the old because it has been found insufficient or false, the small because it is old. While the former is influenced by reason, the latter is by disgust. Genius wants to do more than its predecessor; he who apes genius, merely something different.—Lansing.

HONEST MARKING OF GOODS GETS A BOOST

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—No more mercerized shirts to be labeled "silk," no more cotton garments to bear a mark "all wool." Not if the Laundryowners' National association can have its way.

Not that the laundry owners care what you wear or how much it costs your friends. But when the public is fooled by misleading labels and buys goods branded all wool, the public expects the goods to come back from the laundry as all wool ought to come back. And there's the rub.

Cottons in which the colors run, goods that won't stand the test of washing, fabrics so woven that they quickly go to pieces, all these mean kicks for the laundryman, for a public doesn't understand.

Therefore the Laundryowners' National association demands a pure fabric law which will call for the correct labeling of all goods and penalties for misbranding.

Best Fruits of Romance.

A speaker was taken aback during a Sunday school session. He had been commenting on the blessings of matrimony, and just to see whether or not the class was really paying attention, asked one girl what she considered to be the best fruits of romance. The girl pondered a moment and then answered: "I should say the wedding date and the bridal pair."

ORDINANCE NO. 482

An ordinance providing for the issuance of Park Improvement Bonds in the sum of ten thousand dollars by the City of Ada, Pontotoc County, State of Oklahoma, authorized at an election duly called and held for such purpose, prescribing form of bonds, providing levy of an annual tax for payment of principal and interest on the same; fixing other details of the issue; and declaring an emergency.

Whereas, on the 18th day of September, 1919, pursuant to notice duly given, an election was held in the City of Ada, Pontotoc County, State of Oklahoma, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified property tax-paying voters the question of the issuance of the bonds of said city in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to provide funds for the purpose of improving a park site; and

Whereas, as shown by the canvass of the returns by the county election board, at said election there was cast by the qualified property tax-paying voters of said city, 692 votes, of which 467 were in favor of and 218 were against the issuance of said bonds, and 7 were mutilated ballots; and

Whereas, a lawful majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters voting on said proposition cast their ballots in favor of the issuance of said bonds, the issuance thereof has been duly authorized, now, Therefore,

Be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Ada, State of Oklahoma:

Section 1. That there are hereby ordered and directed to be issued the negotiable coupon bonds of said city, in accordance with the form as hereinafter set out, in the aggregate amount of Ten Thousand Dollars, which bonds shall be designated "Park Improvement Bonds of 1919", and shall be ten in number, of the denomination of One Thousand Dollars each; shall be dated November 1, 1919, and be numbered and become due and payable as follows:

- One, November 1, 1924.
- Two, November 1, 1925.
- Three, November 1, 1926.
- Four, November 1, 1927.
- Five, November 1, 1928.
- Six, November 1, 1929.
- Seven, November 1, 1930.
- Eight, November 1, 1931.
- Nine, November 1, 1932.
- Ten, November 1, 1933.

and bear interest from their date until paid at the rate of five and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and November in each year, except the first coupon shall mature on the First day of May, 1921, which installments of interest to date of maturity of principal shall be evidenced by appropriate coupons attached to each of said bonds, and both principal and interest shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the Fiscal Agency of the State of Oklahoma in the City and State of New York, or in the event of the discontinuance of such agency, at the Guaranty Trust Company in said City and State of New York.

Section 2. That each of said bonds, the coupons thereto attached, and the endorsements and certificates thereon shall be in substantiality the following form:

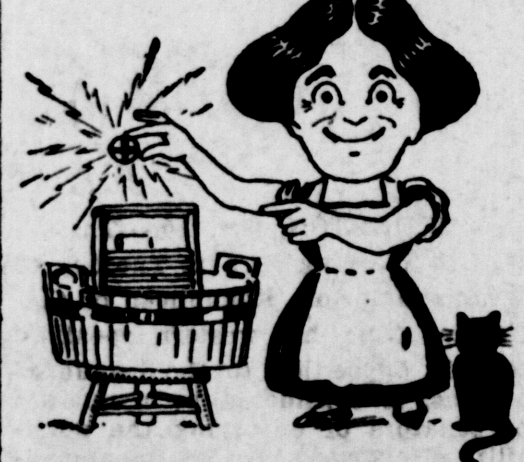

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF OKLAHOMA
THE CITY OF ADA
PARK IMPROVEMENT BOND OF 1919.

No. $1000.00

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the City of Ada, in the State of Oklahoma, hereby acknowledge itself indebted to and for value received promises to pay to the bearer the sum of One Thousand Dollars on the First day of November, A.D. 1919, together with interest thereon from the date hereof until paid at the rate of five and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the First day of May and November of each year; said interest evidenced by and to be paid upon the surrender of the coupons hereto attached as they severally become due, both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the Fiscal Agency of the State of Oklahoma in the City and State of New York, or, in the event of the discontinuance of such Agency, at the Guaranty Trust Company in said City and State of New York.

sources of said city are hereby irrevocably pledged to the payment of this bond.

This Bond is one of an issue numbered from One to Ten, both inclusive, of like date and tenor, except as to date of maturity, aggregating the principal sum of Ten Thousand Dollars, and is issued for the purpose of providing funds with which to improve a park site to be used as a public utility and owned exclusively by said city, under Section 27, of Article 10, of the Constitution and Statutes of the State of Oklahoma complementary, supplementary and enacted pursuant thereto.

It is Hereby Certified and Recited that all acts, conditions and things required to be done, precedent to and in the issuance of this bond have been properly done, happened and been performed in regular and due form and time as required by law, and that the total indebtedness of said city, including this bond, and the series of which it forms a part, does not exceed any constitutional or statutory limitation; and that due provision has been made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on this bond as it falls due and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal hereof at maturity.

In Witness Whereof said city has caused this bond to be signed by its Mayor, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of said city, attested by the Clerk of said Board, and sealed with the seal of said city this First day of November, A. D. 1919.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.
Junior Red Cross.

Early in the participation of the United States in the world war, the American Red Cross perceived the value of mobilizing the school children of the country and the Junior Red Cross was organized. Before the war ended nine million children were enrolled and helped in the war fund and membership campaigns, in chapter production of relief supplies and manufacturing furniture for the refugees whose homes and household goods were destroyed.

Children everywhere in the United States responded to the call to service sounded by President Wilson as head of the American Red Cross. This photograph is that of an enthusiastic young Japanese member of the Junior Red Cross of Spokane, Wash., starting out on the ambitious undertaking of collecting "a mile of pennies" for war relief. A comprehensive peace program is now being worked out for the Junior Red Cross, which is being held intact.

A Voice From Sioux City, Iowa, says

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 904 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA."
(Signed) W. W. NORTHROP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA. DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

Canada Farmers Organize a New Political Party

By the Associated Press
REGINA, Sask., Oct. 9.—Farmers of Saskatchewan, who are organizing a political party of their own throughout the province, will set aside a day late this month which is to be known as Independence Day, and is to be celebrated annually.

The keynote of the new organization is to promote rural interest in political questions and to support a platform to be constructed along the lines of recommendations adopted some time ago by the Canadian Council of Agriculture. It is understood that farmers in other western provinces may take similar action soon.

The first meeting of Saskatchewan farmers was held here recently. Speakers declared that a farmers' political party in this province would insure favorable legislation upon all subjects affecting crops, lands, produce distribution and the cost of living. It also declared that such political action would mean almost a solid rural representation at Ottawa.

Figures were given out at the convention, showing there are approximately 106,000 farmers in Saskatchewan. The total voting strength of the province is about 320,000. The foreign population is given as 168,000. There was some opposition among the farmers to including foreign speaking agriculturists in the new party, but it has been decided to make citizenship the basis of membership.

The petition bore 86,000 signatures of men and women throughout the state, every name attested by a notary. The Indiana legislature is expected to be called in special session soon.

WET SPELL ENDS IN ST. LOUIS AS INJUNCTION DIES

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 17.—Motions to dissolve the temporary injunction issued against the district attorney and the collector of internal revenue here on December 5 restraining them from interfering with the sale of whiskey were granted by United States Judge Faris in court here yesterday. Attorneys for the whiskey interests asked Judge Faris for a day's grace before putting the dissolution of the injunction into effect but this was denied. Judge Faris announced that he would sign the order of dissolution of the injunction as soon as it was presented to him. To Act Quickly. District Attorney Hensley and Internal Revenue Collector Moore said they would present the order to the judge immediately and that the sale of whiskey in this district would be in violation of the law within the hour. The injunction was granted to numerous whiskey dealers by Judge Faris on December 5 and restrained the district attorney and the collector of internal revenue from interfering with the sale of whiskey in this district which comprises 54 counties as well as the city of St. Louis. The district attorney announced that he would make application for a writ of supersedeas from the temporary injunction of Judge Pollock which permits the manufacture of 2.75 per cent alcoholic beer, as soon as he had time to get it.

EDUCATION GETS GREAT IMPETUS IN ENGLAND LATELY

By the Associated Press. MANCHESTER, Eng., Dec. 17.—There has been an increase in zeal among the college students of this country since the war, according to Viscount Bryce. Speaking at the university of Manchester he said that in all the universities, notably in Oxford and Cambridge, the numbers of students had grown until it had become difficult to find accommodation for them. At Oxford, he continued, they had told him that men had come back from the war hungry and thirsting for learning. They were training themselves with an energy which was seldom seen even under the pressure of the competition that existed before 1914. Moreover, the intellectual vitality of the students was high, proving that so long as the British people maintained their patriotism, strength, force and intellectual life the country would pull through. Referring to the duties and functions which universities would discharge in the future, Viscount Bryce said that he did not think that in the whole range of human thought there was any subject at this moment which was more important in the interest of the country and of the world than the study of economic problems. It was not merely for practical purposes, or the merely utilitarian part of life that we should study languages and history, he said. Half the business of life was concerned with knowing how to use men and women, how to understand them, how to get on with them, how to turn their faculties to the best account. "It is good for us," said Lord Bryce, "that we should get to know not only men but nations. These are times in which no nation can any longer live a life of isolation. We have stood apart from the European Continent, secure in our immunity from invasion, and our people have given too little thought to what was passing in other nations and studied too little the relations which we have maintained with them. But the war has shown us that our fortunes are bound up with the fortunes of the rest of the world; it has shown us that not even a continent cut off from us by a great ocean, that no great people, can any longer stand outside the circle."

Supt. R. H. Wilson Recommends Club Work in Schools

Stillwater, Okla., December 16, 1919. To the Teachers of Oklahoma: I have the greatest faith in the results of club work as a means of making your schools more interesting to your pupils, and also that through such work we can establish such an education as will enrich the lives of our boys and girls on the farm and dignify the rural life. State Superintendent Wilson shares this belief with me, and has sent me the quoted letter with the request that I send it to you.—E. B. Shotwell.

"To the Teachers of Oklahoma: I am very much impressed with the importance of Boys and Girls Club work throughout the state of Oklahoma, and wherever there is a county agent in any of the counties of the state. I urge your co-operation with the county agent in stimulating and assisting club work. To this end I request that on the third Friday of December you set apart an hour to explain Boys and Girls Club work to your pupils and urge them, wherever practical, to become members of one or more of these Clubs.

"I suggest that in the meantime you learn what you can of this work so that you will be able to present it as fully as possible to your pupils. I am sure that such club work in your school will materially add to the interest in your class in agriculture and home economics.

"Trusting you will give to county agent your fullest cooperation in this line of education, which is fundamental to the better development of the rural home in your district. I remain,

Very truly yours,
"R. H. WILSON,
"State Superintendent."
She Had Faith

The following appeared a few days ago in the State Register of Springfield, Ill.:

"Many are the stories of Henry Ford and his popular automobile but Hillsboro is relating what it calls the best of the season, and the facts in the case are true. It happened in one of the leading churches of the city, that the pastor took for the text of his sermon, 'Better Church Attendance.'

"The pastor held that the automobile has taken more people away from church than any other thing. He concluded with the exclamation: 'The Ford car has taken more people to hell than any other thing I can mention!' whereupon an old lady in the congregation began to clap her hands and moan, 'Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord.'

"What's the matter, sister?" asked the pastor.

"The Ford never went any place that it couldn't make the round trip, and I am sure that all those people in hell will be back," she answered. "So praise the Lord."

VIENNA FOLK BEG HOURS FOR FEW POUNDS OF COAL

A common sight at one of the Vienna coal stations.

While people in many parts of the U. S. are feeling the present coal shortage caused by the protracted strike of the miners we cannot begin to realize the coal conditions in many parts of Europe. According to recent reports from Vienna each family there is allowed only 14 pounds of coal each week. They must wait at one of the coal stations for hours to get this. Mothers and children beg officials to give them coal when their supply runs out during the week.

The Christmas Gift That Will Make Thousands Happy

Why? Because it is the only phonograph that is able to give you real music, true music.

The New Edison music is real because its RE-CREATIONS cannot be distinguished from the original music itself. This means that the New Edison gives you something no talking machine or ordinary phonograph is capable of giving you. This does full justice to the artists themselves and to you. We do not attempt to sell you a mere reproduction when you are entitled to an actual RE-CREATION.

Could any gift make any one happier than the phonograph that gives you actual realism?

GOV. ROBERTSON RETURNS FROM MINING DISTRICTS

By News' Special Service:
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—Governor Robertson returned to the executive offices Monday morning after an absence of several days when he was in Henryetta and McAlester mining districts directing the work of producing coal by volunteer labor. Adj. Gen. Charles F. Barrett, in charge of the military occupancy of Haskell, LeFlore, Pittsburg and Oklahoma counties, under the proclamation of martial law issued by the governor, is expected to return Wednesday or Thursday.

Governor Robertson expressed himself as pleased with the work of the volunteers and gives unrestricted credit to John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture and chairman of the state council of defense for the organization of the workers and his superintendency of the work. The governor apparently was of the opinion that a former statement, which he said that he believed the strike should have been fought to a finish, was a sufficient declaration concerning the general aspect of the strike and its probable settlement.

Volunteer workers who had been in the coal districts about a week, were returned to their homes Friday night and Saturday and the detachment of guardsmen sent to the counties to maintain martial law were also withdrawn. The volunteers were paid off by the state at the conclusion of their work last week, receiving pay at the rate of about $5 a day.

With the expectation that coal production will be resumed in compliance with the settlement effected by federal agency the matter of getting coal to consumers is the important consideration just now by the state authorities.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Permit me to thank you and through you the New York Life Insurance Company for the check of $4,000 in settlement of policy No. 6,444,697 on the life of my son Henry.

The above policy was written on March 25 and one annual premium of $64.16 paid. The face of the policy was for $2,000, but it had the Disability and Double Indemnity features attached. On July 4 the insured was out bathing with a family party and was accidentally drowned, and on due proof of death by drowning the Company paid the Double Indemnity in full. The insurance was in force only three months and twenty-two days.

You certainly represent a wonderful Company, and I can only wish you abundant success in your grand work.

Your respectfully,
HARRY WEINBERG.

FORMER NORMAL STUDENT WRITES FROM THE NAVY

Clarke C. Fulks, who was a student in East Central State Normal School for several terms prior to the outbreak of the war, left the Normal School and joined the navy. Clarke has re-enlisted and is now on board the U. S. S. Orion as well as seen from the following letter:

"My dear Mr. Gordon:
"Just a line to let you know that the good old days at East Central are not forgotten.

"The Orion arrived at Norfolk Dec. 2, and we came here about a week ago. We are now taking a load of aeroplanes for San Diego and a load of coal for Honolulu, so we are due for quite a bit of travel.

"Maybe you have never heard the Orion's war record. Well, she fired the first shot in the war at Ponta Delgada, Azores Islands, July 4, 1917, thereby saving the town which was being attacked by a sub. The sub was sunk and we have a letter of thanks from the governor of the city. She had a mileage of 58,000 miles during the war.

"All our old fellows are discharged and the ship is mighty lonesome these days, so I would be mighty glad to hear from any of East Central's adherents for it makes me feel like home again. I have a whole bunch of Tulsa papers here I bought here in Philadelphia and it surely does make me feel good to read an Oklahoma paper again.

"I have spent an enjoyable day today looking over all the historical places about here.

"Well, I'll be getting back to the ship now. Good luck to you, and hoping to hear from several students, I remain 'still an East Centralite.'

GOVERNOR ALLEN HAS PLANS TO AID UNREST PROBLEM

By the Associated Press

TOPEKA, Kans., Dec. 17.—Preparatory to the meeting of the Kansas legislature in special session on January 5, members of that body have under consideration numerous plans for a state law which will meet the requirements of the present industrial situation, brought to an acute head by the coal strike. Gov. Henry J. Allen in his proclamation calling the special session, has asked the legislature to formulate some method whereby disputes between employees and employers in essential industries may be settled without a complete curtailment of production, caused by strike or lock-out, pending a settlement of the dispute. Arbitration of these disputes, Governor Allen declared, has proven inadequate. Some other plan in the operation of which neither party of the dispute shall have a final voice, must be devised, he stated.

The administration legislative program as proposed will include three dominant policies. Preliminary, an industrial court will be urged, it is said with a possibility that the legislature may undertake the establishing of such an institution itself, and also recommend such a solution of the current problem on a national basis. Profiteering laws will be second. Recourse by the public may be secured through a bill providing for a jury determination of profits. Another course in this particular may be through a commission or license system to retailers and affecting tradesmen, middlemen and producers. A third provision considered of vital importance is for a new workmen's compensation law. A commission was appointed by the governor, at the request of the last legislature, which met the first part of this year, to investigate the operation of the present workmen's compensation law and to report recommendations for its revision or a new law.

Hope that the interests of the general public will be fully considered by the legislature is seen in the fact that its personnel includes a wide variety of trades and professions, with men of agricultural interests predominant.

Kay County Claims It Leads Nation as a Chicken Producer

PONCA CITY, Okla., Dec. 17.—Down in Texas there is a county that has the distinction of growing more cotton than any other county in the United States. Up in Iowa there is a county that has the same distinction as to corn, while both Minnesota and Kansas claim similar distinctions for certain counties as to wheat. But Kay county, Oklahoma, is the first county in the nation in chickens. In poultry exhibits, according to the official announcement from that department in Washington that has Col. Houston as its head, Kay county is unexcelled.

Activities of the boys and girls farm clubs is held responsible for Kay county's champion stride in the poultry industry. Eight hundred and ninety-seven boys and girls are members of the poultry clubs of the county. This year alone these club members hatched 28,000 purebred chickens.

Kay county's title claim was made after the state poultry show was held at Blackwell, this county, a few days ago.
